Entrepreneur Magazine Names NBIS as # 5 Company

ATLANTA—May 21, 2006 NationsBuilders Insurance Services was recently ranked #5 by Entrepreneur magazine and PricewaterhouseCoopers' in their 12th Annual "Hot 100 Companies." The June edition of Entrepreneur magazine lists the top 100 companies that are leading the pack in fast growth, big sales and smart business. The article reveals the success secret given by Peter H. Foley, President/CEO of NBIS, as "hir[ing] the best person for the job."

PricewaterhouseCoopers provided Entrepreneur magazine with an initial list of fast growing companies to begin the selection process for the 2006 Top 100 companies. The information comes from multiple data sources including the proprietary "Money Tree Survey" of VC investing by PricewaterhouseCoopers, Thomas Venture Economics and the National Venture Capital Association. Rankings are based on company sales growth from the date of inception. Peter H. Foley, President/CEO of NBIS, said "this nomination reflects hard work and a cohesive team that has developed over the last four and a half years."

With offices in Atlanta, Georgia, Palm Desert, California and Chicago, Illinois, NBIS is dedicated to finding solutions to the challenges facing the contractors sector of the insurance industry, through the offering of customized insurance coverage, risk mitigation and loss control services.
